THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST LESSON

Wisdom of Solomon 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Lector A reading from the Wisdom of Solomon.

God did not make death, And he does not delight in the death of the living.

For he created all things so that they might exist; the generative forces of the world are wholesome, and there is no destructive poison in them, and the dominion of Hades is not on earth.

For righteousness is immortal.

God created us for incorruption, and made us in the image of his own eternity, but through the devil's envy death entered the world, and those who belong to his company experience it.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Robert Knox Kennedy
(b. 1945)

I will exalt you, O Lord,
because you have | lifted me up *
and have not let my enemies | triumph over me.
O Lord my God, I | cried out to you, *
and you restored me to | health.

You brought me up, O Lord, from the | dead; *
you restored my life as I was going down to the | grave.
Sing to the Lord, you | servants of his; *
give thanks for the remembrance of his | holiness.

For his wrath endures but the | twinkling of an eye, *
his favor for a | lifetime.
Weeping may spend the | night, *
but joy comes in the | morning.

While I felt secure, I said,
"I shall never be dis | turbed. *
You, Lord, with your favor, made me as strong as the | mountains."
Then you hid your | face, *
and I was filled with | fear.

I cried to you, O | Lord; *
I pleaded with the | Lord, saying,
"What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the | Pit? *
will the dust praise you or declare your | faithfulness?

Hear, O Lord, and have | mercy upon me; *
O Lord, be my | helper."
You have turned my wailing into | dancing; *
you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with | joy.

(2nd half) Therefore my heart sings to you without | ceasing; *
O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for | ever.

Lector A reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

As you excel in everything~ in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you~ so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking. I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something~ now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has~ not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written, "The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little."

Lector The Word of the Lord.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 5:21-43

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live." So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well." Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?" And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, 'Who touched me?'" He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease." While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!" And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

SERMON

Mother Emma Brice

Silence is kept.

BCP, p. 326

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE OFFERTORY

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Consecration

Frederick Chatfield (b. 1950)

*Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Thee.
Take my moments and my days;
let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my hands, and let them move
at the impulse of Thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be swift and beautiful for Thee.*

*Take my voice, and let me sing
always, only, for my King.
Take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from Thee.
Take my silver and my gold;
not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use every power as Thou shalt choose.*

*Take my will, and make it Thine;
it shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart, it is Thine own;
it shall be Thy royal throne.
Take my love, my Lord, I pour at Thy feet its treasure store.
Take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for Thee.*

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving.

Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to sing,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

William H. Plant

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hal-owed be thy name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in Heav-en.
Give us this day our dai-ly bread, And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who tres-pass a-gainst us.
And lead us not in-to temp-ta-tion, but de-liv-er us from e-vil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glo-ry,
For ev-er and ev-er, A - men.

Music Notes

Gaston Litaize (1909–1991), a French composer and organist, wrote the “Douze Pièces pour Grand Orgue” (Twelve Pieces for Grand Organ) between 1931 and 1937. These pieces showcase his mastery of the French organ tradition and remain significant contributions to the repertoire.

The Prélude exhibits expressive simplicity and restrained elegance. The use of modal harmonies creates a sense of meditative reverence. The piece unfolds with a gentle melody that gradually builds in intensity.

Frederick Chatfield (b. 1950), a published composer, served as Director of Music and Organist of Christ United Methodist Church in Kettering, Ohio, a position he held for thirty years (1986-2016). He is the same composer of the lovely anthem “Have you heard God’s voice?” that the choir sang last Sunday. Chatfield’s Consecration is a lovely, compelling setting of Frances Havergal’s hymn-text “Take my life and let it be” found in our hymnal (#707).

Gerald Near (b. 1942) is an American composer known for his organ, choral, and church music. His chorale preludes are captivating pieces that explore various hymn tunes and Gregorian chant melodies. The setting on the hymn tune “St. Denio” is found in his Choraleworks Set 2 written in 1995. It is based on the Welsh melody and set to the text “Immortal, invisible, God only wise” in our hymnal (#423). An initial harmonized first phrase of the Welsh tune leads to a faster section, itself by the second phrase of the tune. This section contains more running notes. Finally, after some harmonic shifts, the last two phrases of the tune appear in longer note values and end with a glorious coda.
